

DINOSAURS Scavenger Hunt!

Do you recognise these 8 dinosaurs?
How many can you find hidden around the library?

Apatosaurus

ah-PAT-oh-SORE-us

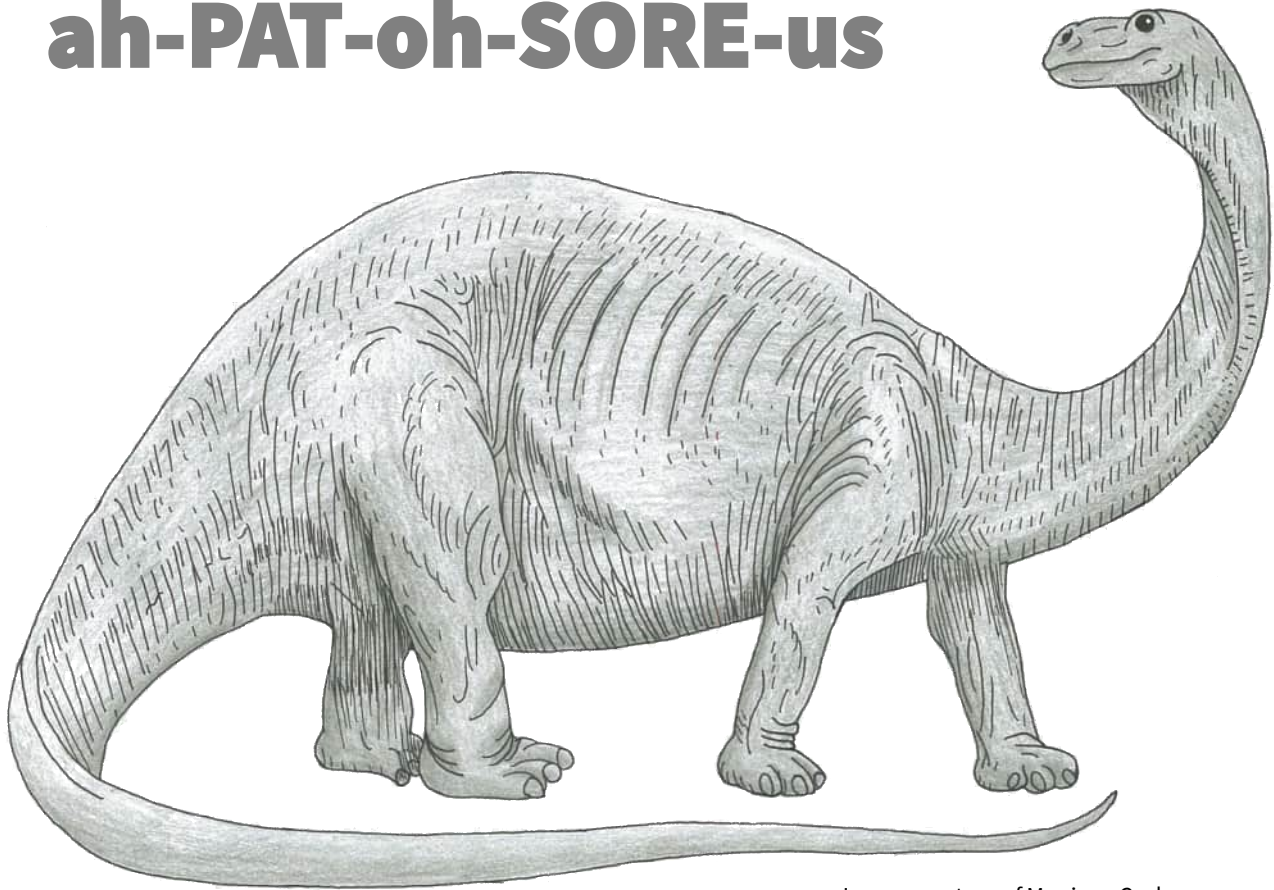

Image courtesy of Monique Cayless.

“Deceptive Lizard”

- Plant-eater.
- Lived in America.
- Weighed the same as a Humpback Whale!

Tyrannosaurus Rex

tie-RAN-oh-sore-us rex

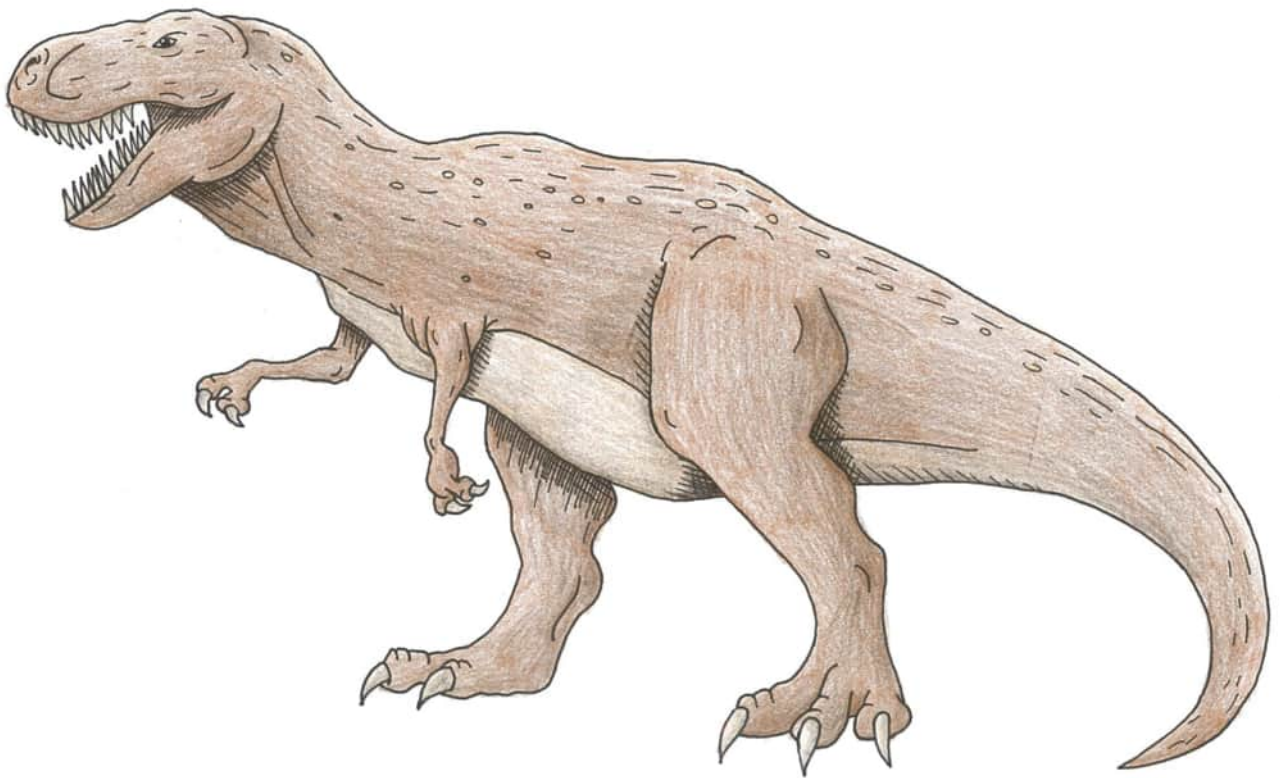

Image courtesy of Monique Cayless.

“King of the Tyrant Lizards”

- Meat-eater
- Lived in America and Canada
- Strong sense of smell
- Could run very fast for a very long time!

Velociraptor

vel-OS-ih-RAP-tor

Image courtesy of Monique Cayless.

“Speedy Thief”

- Meat-eater
- Lived in Mongolia, China and Russia
- Covered in feathers
- About the size of a turkey!

Plesiosaurus

PLES-ee-oh-sore-us

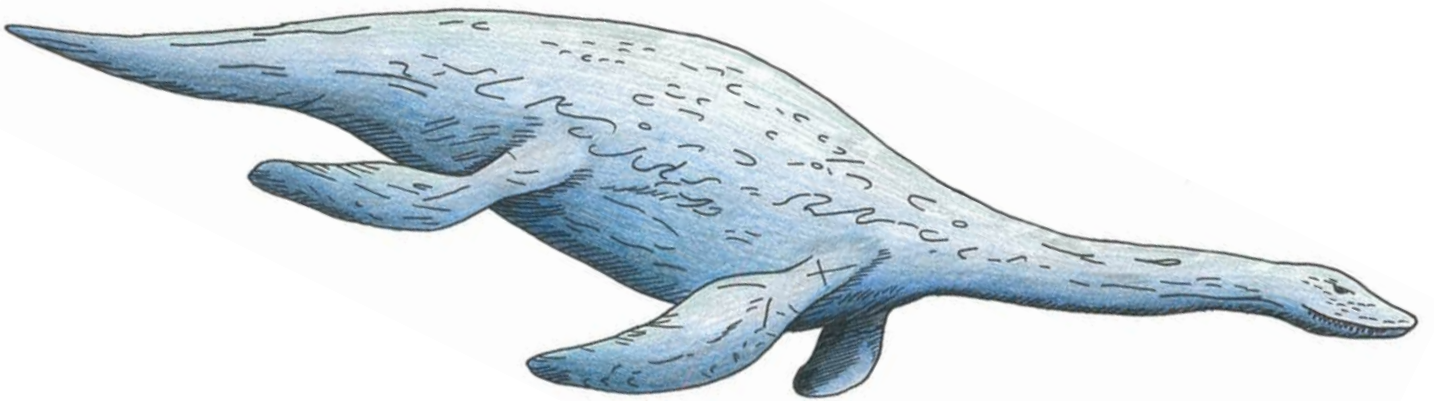

Image courtesy of Monique Cayless.

“Almost lizard”

- Meat-eater
- NOT a dinosaur, but a marine reptile
- Lived in the oceans near Europe, Australia, America and Asia

Pterodactyl

tear-oh-DAC-til

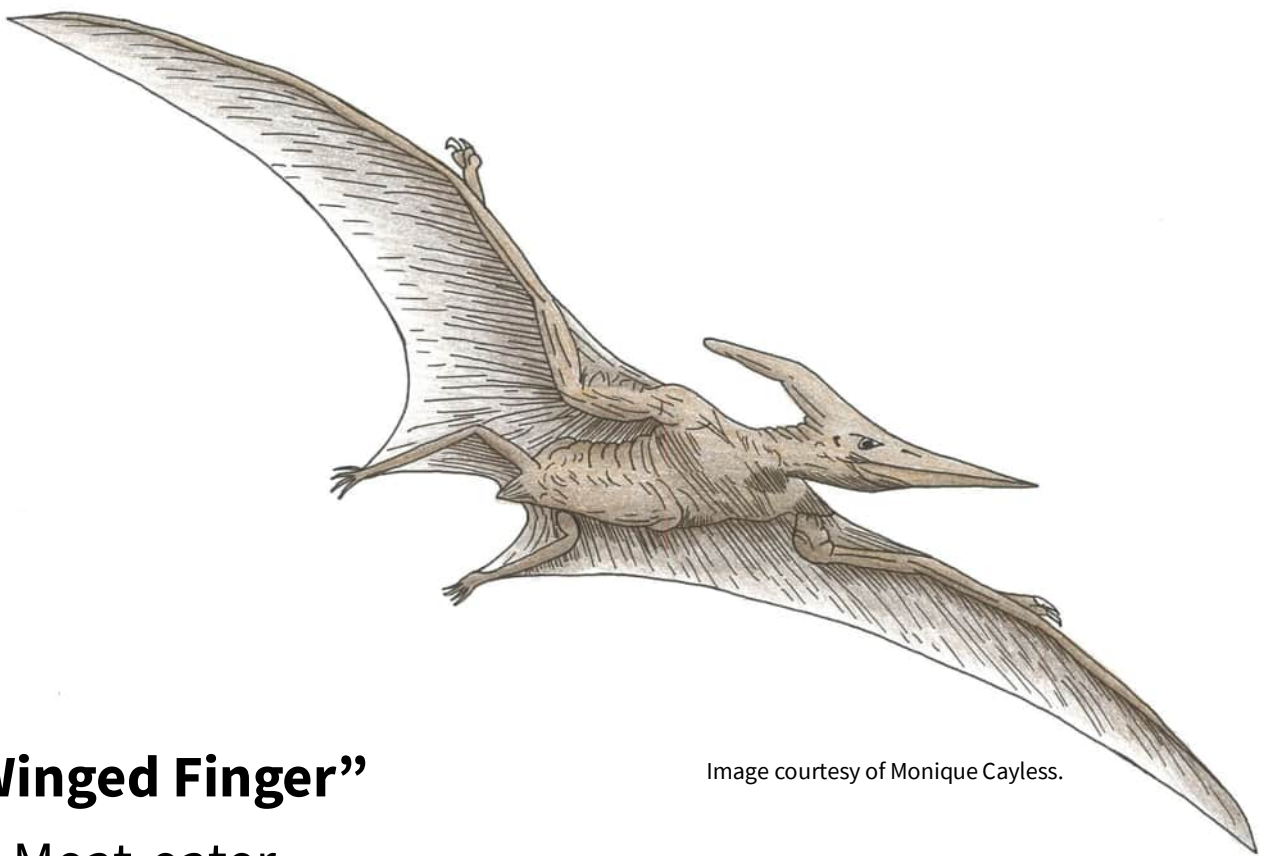

Image courtesy of Monique Cayless.

“Winged Finger”

- Meat-eater
- NOT a dinosaur, but a flying reptile
- Lived in Africa and Europe
- Wings made of skin and muscle between their fourth finger and leg, just like a bat!

Parasaurolophus

pa-ra-sore-ROL-off-us

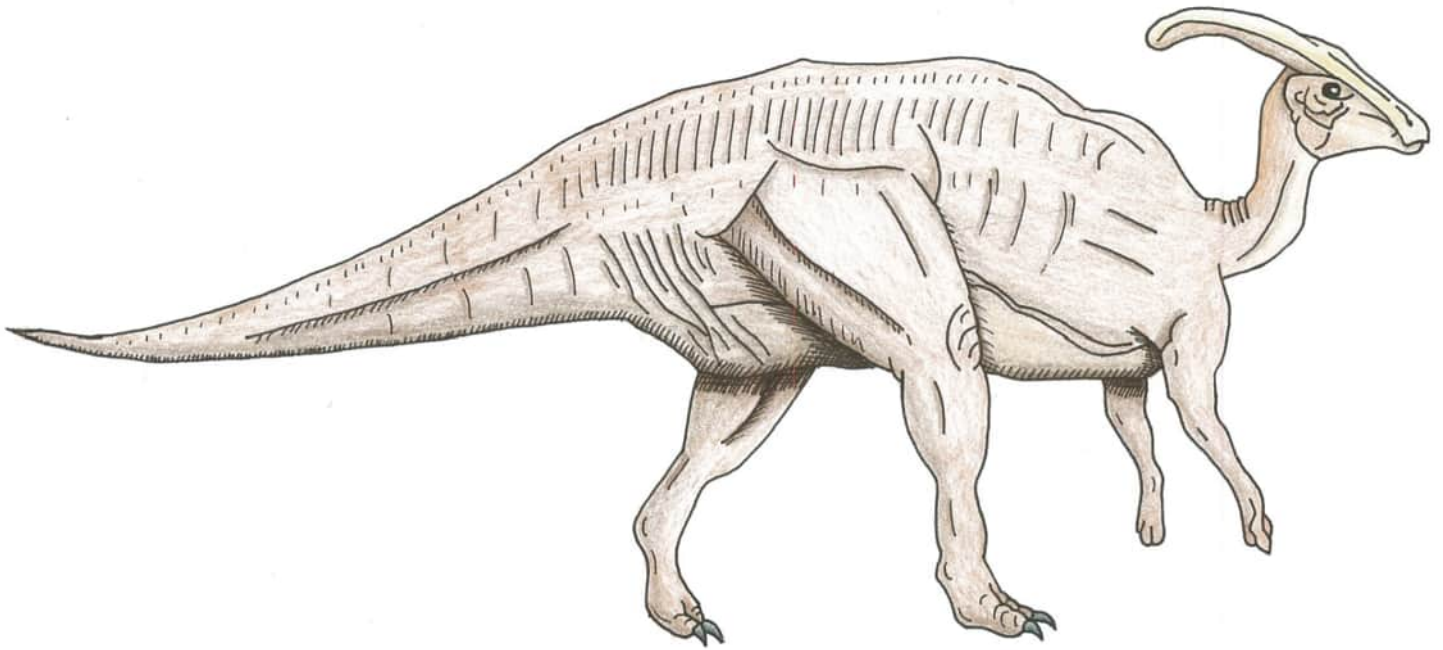

Image courtesy of Monique Cayless.

“Near Crested Lizard”

- Plant-eater
- Lived in America and Asia
- Had a big crest on top of their head that made their call louder

Stegosaurus

STEG-oh-SORE-us

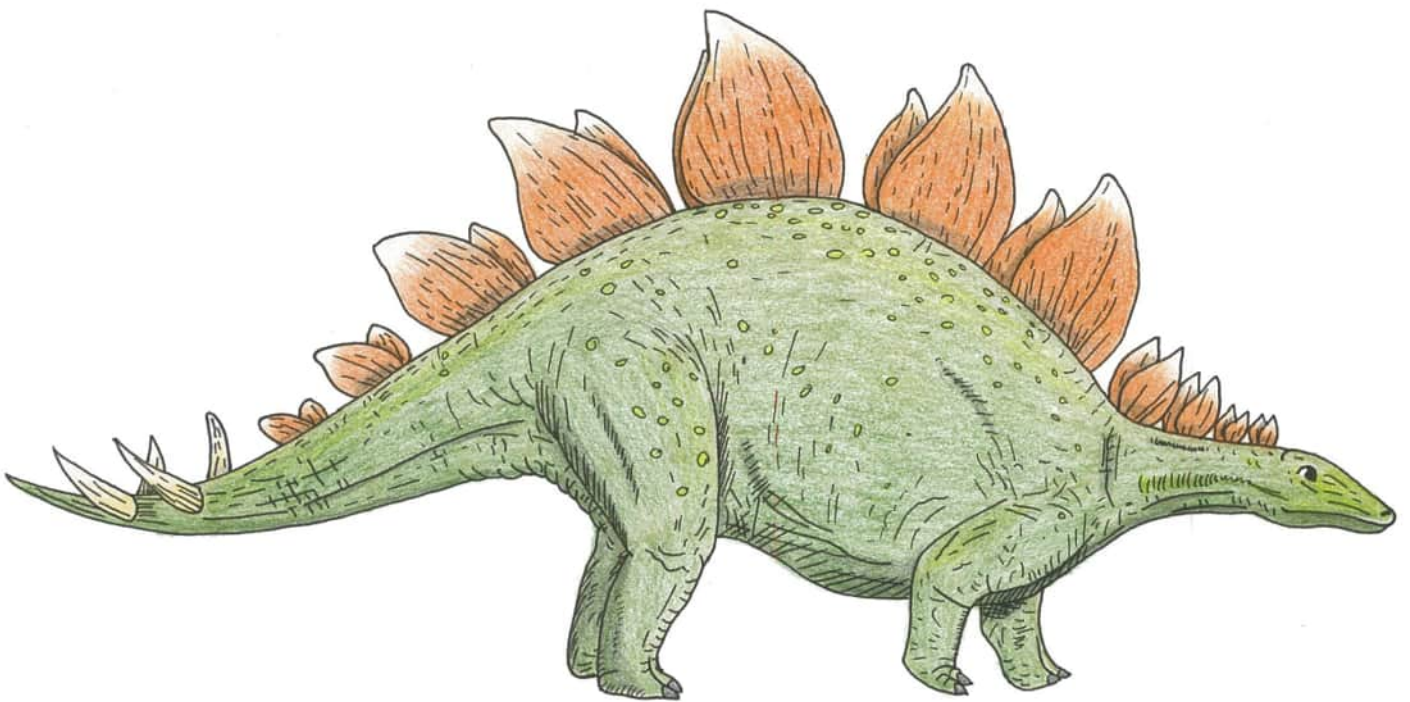

Image courtesy of Monique Cayless.

“Roof Lizard”

- Plant-eater
- Lived in America and Portugal
- Had spikes on their tail for protection and large plates on their back to help keep them at the right temperature

Triceratops

try-SERRA-tops

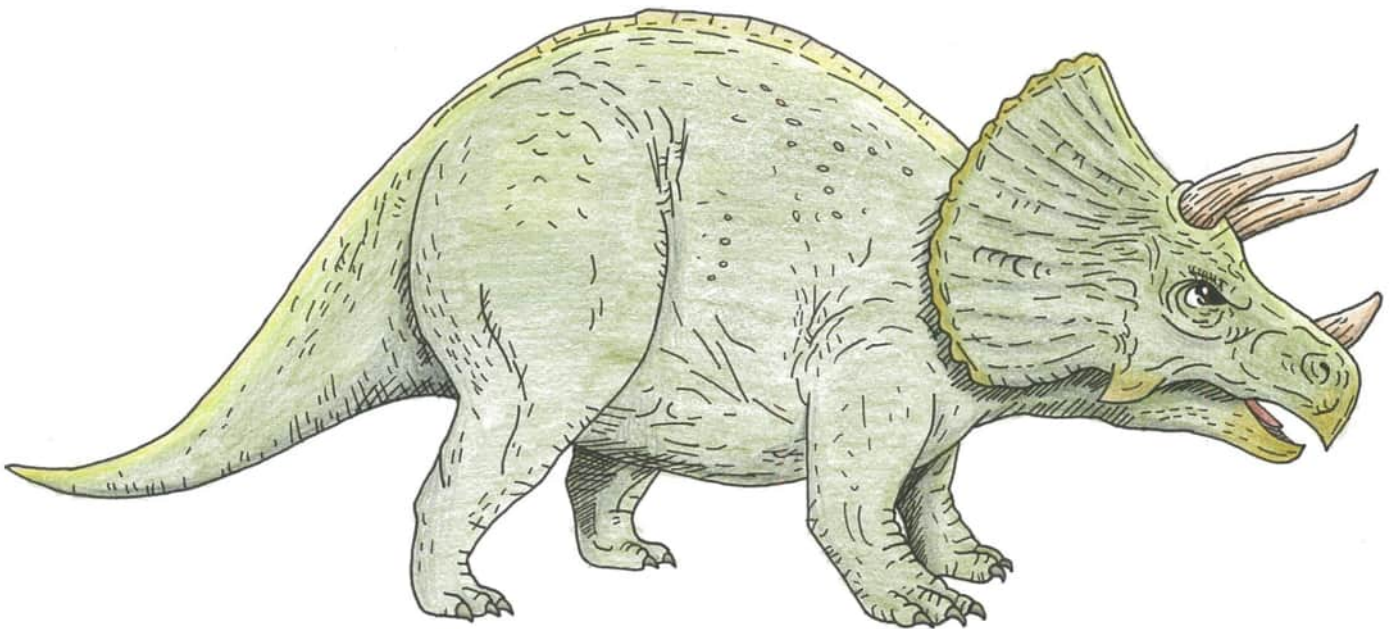

Image courtesy of Monique Cayless.

“Three-Horned Face”

- Plant-eater
- Lived in America
- Had a big bony frill around its head and three horns to protect itself, keep it at the right temperature and to communicate with other Triceratops